

Proclamation

National Crime Victims' Rights Week in Santa Clara, Texas – April 18 – 24, 2021

Whereas, Americans are victims of more than 20 million crimes each year, and these crimes also affect family members, friends, neighbors, and co-workers; and

Whereas, crime can leave a lasting physical, emotional, or financial impact on people of all ages and abilities, and of all economic, racial, and social backgrounds; and

Whereas, in 1984, the Crime Victims Fund was established by the Victims of Crime Act (VOCA) to provide a permanent source of support for crime victim services and compensation through fines and penalties paid by convicted federal offenders; and

Whereas, the Crime Victims Fund today supports thousands of victim assistance programs who provide help and support to child victims of violence and sexual abuse; stalking victims; survivors of homicide victims; victims of drunk-driving crashes; and victims of domestic, dating, and sexual violence and other crimes; and

Whereas, by ensuring that federal offender criminal fines and penalties are deposited into the Crime Victims Fund, Congress affirmed that those who commit crimes should be held accountable for the impact of their actions; and

Whereas, the Crime Victims Fund provides victim assistance to more than 3.5 million crime victims annually and also provides compensation funds to thousands of crime victims each year for reimbursement of expenses related to their victimization; and

Whereas, the victim assistance community faces new challenges to reach and serve all victims, including victims of newly recognized crimes; and

Whereas, now is the time to embrace a new emphasis on learning what works in reaching underserved victims and meeting victims' needs; and

Whereas, National Crime Victims' Rights Week, provides an opportunity to celebrate the energy, creativity, and commitment that launched the victims' rights movement, inspired its progress, and continues to advance the cause of justice for crime victims; and

Whereas, Advocates are joining forces with victim service providers, criminal justice agencies, and concerned citizens throughout The City of Santa Clara and America to raise awareness of victims' rights and observe National Crime Victims' Rights Week.

Now Therefore, Be It Resolved, in official recognition, the City of Santa Clara hereby proclaims the week of April 18-24, 2021 as National Crime Victims' Rights Week in Santa Clara, Texas, and reaffirms the City's commitment to respect and enforce victims' rights and address victims' needs during National Crime Victims' Rights Week and throughout the year; and express our appreciation for those victims and crime survivors who have turned personal tragedy into a motivating force to improve our response to victims of crime and build a more just community.

In Witness Whereof, we have here unto set our hand this 22nd day of March 2021.

This Proclamation shall be effective upon passage and approval.

PASSED and APPROVED on the 22nd Day of March 2021

Jeff Hunt, Mayor

Donna White, City Secretary
